

Hands-On Cadaver Course

Each student will have his/her own cadaver to dissect

May 6-7, 2022 | Atlanta, GA | 15 CEUs

Course Objectives

- ✓ Visualization of the TM joint's anatomy and observe the motion of the condyle and the disc.
- ✓ Observation of actual obstruction of the airway.
- ✓ Examination and dissection of the muscles which comprise the airway.
- ✓ Each student will have his or her own cadaver to dissect.
- ✓ Visualization and observation of injection techniques that are taught in the mini residency program and their anatomical basis.
- ✓ Examination, in detail, of the brain to understand the numerous areas which are involved in both pain perception and the complex process of sleep.
- ✓ Dissection of structures that contribute to craniofacial pain and temporomandibular disorders.

Visit www.BenPatInstitute.com or call 918.633.2778 to sign up today!

SPACE IS LIMITED!

Dissection of the different structures will include the following:

- ✓ Pharyngeal muscles
- ✓ Palate and soft palate
- ✓ Maxillary sinus and pterygopalatine fossa
- ✓ Muscles of facial expression and facial nerve
- ✓ Neck, carotid artery and maxillary artery
- ✓ Infraorbital and mental nerves
- ✓ Muscles of mastication
- ✓ Maxillary artery
- ✓ Temporomandibular joint
- ✓ Infratemporal fossa
- ✓ Inferior alveolar nerve
- ✓ Stylomandibular ligament

Dentist: $2795 CEUs: 15

Location: 200 ashford Center N. STE 195. Atlanta, GA 30338

Speaker:

Wesley E. Shankland, DDS

Dr. Wesley E. Shankland, II, DDS is highly trained in general dentistry, restorative dentistry, the treatment of TMD (TMJ) and other facial pain disorders and sleep breathing disorders. He has been in practice since 1978 in Central Ohio. Upon graduation from The Ohio State University College of Dentistry, in a class of 215 students, Dr. Shankland earned 3 of 12 academic awards, all of which were determined by the faculty of the College of Dentistry.

He completed a one-year fellowship in the diagnosis and treatment of temporomandibular disorders. Within one year of graduating, Dr. Shankland was asked to join the faculty of the College of Dentistry and he continued to teach for five years.